Red Wines of Italy

Like most Italian aristocracy, Marquis Mario Incisa della Rocchetta dreamed of creating a noble wine and his taste ran strong to a fine Bordeaux. After settling with his family into their Tuscan estate at Tenuta San Guido, he experimented with several French grape varieties and concluded, "the bouquet I was looking for" was found in the Cabernet which represented a radical shift from the traditional Tuscan varieties of Sangiovese and Nebbiolo. The 1968 vintage of Sassicaia was the first to be offered on the open market and it was as well received as the Premier Crûs from Bordeaux.

Red Wines of Lebanon

Château Musar is located in an 18th Century castle in Ghazir, just fifteen miles north of Beirut, in the fertile Bekaa Valley of Lebanon. Their grand vin is the red Château Musar, a blend which may include Cabernet Sauvignon, Cinsaut, Carignan, Grenache and Mourvedre. The wine is fermented in concrete, before spending one year in vat, then a year in French oak, before going back to vat for several years. Serge Hochar, owner/winemaker believes his wine needs years - perhaps ten - before it is ready for drinking, and the wines are already some way towards that age when they are finally released onto the market.

Red Wines of Chile

Seña is the result of the union of winemaking families from both North and South America. These families are headed by Eduardo Chadwick, of Viña Errazuriz, and Robert Mondavi. Seña is produced at the Don Maximiano Estate in the Aconcagua Valley, which has long been a source of premium grapes for Viña Errazuriz. The Aconcagua Valley was chosen as the source for all of Sena's fruit because of its ideal viticultural climate, with wet winters but a long, dry growing season. It is a blend of classic Bordeaux varieties including Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Carmenère, this latter grape being widespread in Chile, having once been mistaken for Merlot.
